

(Anarchy Song) The “An ‘R’ Key”

Litmus A Freeman

Chorus

R's the key to Anarchy
'Cause with-out the 'R' you just can't see
How this word is meant to be
But the truth can set you free

Anarchy means “No Rulers”, it doesn't mean “No Rules”

Again one day we, will live rule free, but for now we need these tools
But don't let their media fool you when they publicise this term
It doesn't have to lead to mayhem, we've all just go to learn
The proper definition; “No Rulers” not “No Rules”
So use that 'R' and you'll go far, you'll never learn it in their schools
Just take the term “No Rules” and insert an 'R' between
The letter 'E' and the letter 'S' and the truth can then be seen

Repeat Chorus

It means that we're all equal, we don't need a king or queen
We need 'precedents' not 'Presidents' to escape from where we've been
I ain't the boss of no-one and no-one's the boss of me
And we can do what ever we like and live in liberty
As long as we all do no harm and don't damage property
And honour our agreements, not acting fraudulently
All the rest is rules for fools, overt beauracracy
I say “Cheers to Peers” not “Tears for Fears” and salute the “An 'R' Key”

Repeat Chorus

We just keep decisions local, small groups, communities
Where you know me and I know you, not like in their huge cities
And we can live together, in peace and harmony
With natural rights and simple rules upon which we all agree
Then we don't need no rulers, to tell us how to be
We can live without the Archons of Greek antiquity
No magistrates for reprobates, no overlords for the ignorant hoards
No-one judging you , no-one judging me, just learn to use the “An 'R' Key”
