

The Natural E

Litmus A Freeman / Cliff Coates

[E / F#m(open) /] x 2 (With Riff)

E / F#m(o) /
And so they say, the world is round /
I wouldn't care if it was square /
C#m7 / G#m7 /
As long as I can see a tree, and watch a bird fly over - /
F#m7 / B /
head The Magic of the Natural E..... is / G#m7 A B////////
all we need when we are dead

E / F#m(o) /
And so they say, the sea is green /
They never say the sea is clean /
C#m7 / G#m7 /
'Long as those pipes are out of reach, and there is life along the / F#m7 / B /
shore We sit here laughing on the beach... and
G#m7 A B////////
Neptune's dying cries ignore

CHORUS:

E E/Eb C#m7 A B /
We've go to get away from, living for today /
E E/Eb C#m7 A /
and start thinking about to- mmorrow /
E E/Eb C#m7 A B /
What I'm trying to say is, all the worlds on loan /
E E/Eb C#m7(9) /
We've got to give back what we borrowed

Solo: [E / F#m(open) /] x 2

C#m7 / G#m7 /
As long as Nature's there for me and not some memory in my /
F#m7 / B /
head The magic of the Natural E, Is G#m7 A B////////
all I'll need when I am dead

Repeat Chorus

E / F#m(o) /
And so I ask, what have you done /
To keep the world here for your son? /
C#m7 / G#m7 /
As long as he can climb a tree, and see a bird fly over - /
F#m7 / B /
head The Magic of the Natural E..... is G#m7 A B////////
all he'll need when you are dead

Repeat Chorus twice
