Litmus A Freeman

C F C F

C		Dm		F6	F	G	C
How much money does a		man need to live,	to	carry on breathing,		to	still want to give?
How much money can a		man really spend,	and	still be en-joying,		to	gain in the end?
How much time does a		man have to use,	to	earn for his family,		to	buy them new shoes?
How much time does a		man have to waste,		proving his worth in a		-	nother man's way?

Chorus:

Fmaj7		G
Oh	not much	money but
Oh	So Much	Time
No,	not very much	money (tacet)	but Oh So Much

We work hard every		day to improve things for	them
Am	Em	F	G
They dis- card what we	say, will we bother	a -	gain?

C	Dm	F6	F	G	C
How much soul can a	man have destroyed, and	carry on giving and	conflict a -	void
How much heart does a	man need to say,	to dare to be different,	to go his own	way
And how much money will	his own way cost, the sup- port of his brothers, if he's /	not to be /	lost
And how much time will	his own way take,	if he's not to	falter, if his heart's	not to break
